5:45 PM: Arrive at Mangiami Italiano in Fort Atkinson, WI, for an upscale dinner experience at a premier Italian bistro. We have reserved this cozy little restaurant for the evening and will enjoy dedicated service by Chef Eric Webber and staff. True VIP treatment. 7:00–8:30 PM: Your 3-course Italian dinner experience begins!

Course 1: Your choice of house-made tomato basil soup OR house salad with romaine, red onion, grape tomatoes, croutons, and shaved parmesan with balsamic vinaigrette and extra virgin olive oil (EVOO). Ciabatta bread will also be served.

Course 2: Served family style, you’ll enjoy Mediterranean Cavatappi tossed with shrimp, EVOO, garlic, white wine, olives, artichokes, and sun-dried tomatoes; Braised Beef Ravioli and asiago with a black pepper alfredo; and Chicken Pesto Alfredo featuring roasted chicken tossed in a pesto Alfredo with linguini.

Course 3: Cannolis, just like in Italy!

8:30 PM: Depart for AmericInn in Fort Atkinson, WI, where we’ll stay the night. If you’re not quite ready for bed, this hotel does have a pool and hot tub. Enjoy a free breakfast the following morning with the option to walk nearby trails for some fresh morning air ahead of the show.

10:40 AM: All aboard! Bus departs AmericInn for The Fireside Theatre.

LUNCH, THE SHOW

11:30 AM: Lunch (included with ticket) in the Fireside Dining Room.
1:30 PM: The Church Basement Ladies take the stage.
4:30 PM: Depart Fireside Theatre for home. We learned last year that the meal at The Fireside is very filling. We’ll make a convenience stop (or two) enroute home to Iowa so that you can grab a sandwich, snack or drink and eat on the bus along the way. This’ll also get us home a little earlier in the evening, since some will still have a short drive.
8:00 PM: Drop off in Waukon– a sweet goodbye to some of our friends.
8:30 PM: Drop off in Decorah– the final destination. What a trip it’s been!
